

*You will say,
'Christ saith this,
and the apostles
say this;' but what canst thou say?
Art thou a child of the Light, and hast thou walked in the Light, and what thou speakest, is it inwardly from God?*

—George Fox

DEEPENING CONNECTIONS: Experiencing Way Opening

3 Participatory Sessions:

These sessions will allow us to share our experiences and listen to others in small groups before rejoining the large group.

1. Transformative Relationships

(how our lives can be transformed by relationships)

organizer: Al Hendrix

2. Bridging the Divide in Troubled Times

(dealing with the angst and polarity of these times)

organizer: Lon Fendall

3. What is Most Sacred/Meaningful to You?

(a time to share stories, poems, scripture, readings)

organizer: Jim Hall

This will be the third year that Quaker men from many churches and meetings throughout the Northwest have gathered to share stories and celebrate how the Spirit is working in our lives.

In addition to the three sessions, there will be time for quiet reflection, worship sharing, and lots of one-on-one conversations as we reconnect with old friends, make new friends, and build bridges across different traditions.

Please join us at beautiful Camp Tillikum in mid April for our third gathering as we once again “find our way” within ourselves and with each other.
